"THE TIMES OF YOUR LIFE"

Good morning yesterday
You wake up . . . and time has slipped away
And suddenly it's hard to find
The memories you left behind
Remember . . . do you remember?

The laughter and the tears
The shadows of misty yesteryears
The good times and the bad you've seen
And all the others in between Remember . . . do you remember
The times of your life?

Each love with a joy and sorrow
Put them away in your mind
For memories are times that you borrow
To spend when you get to tomorrow

Here comes the setting sun
The seasons are passing one by one
So gather moments while you may Collect the dreams that you've dreamed today

Remember . . .
Will you remember . . . the times of your life . . .

Donated In Memory of

*I never thought I'd feel this way and as far as I'm concerned
 I'm glad I got the chance to say . . .
 I Love You*

And if I should ever go away well, then, try to feel the way we do today

And then if you can remember . . .

Keep smiling keep shining
knowing you can always count on me — for sure

That's what friends are for . . .

For good times and bad times

I'll be on your side forever more because That's what friends are for

Well you came and opened me and there's so much more I see

And so, by the way, I thank you

Oh, and then, for the times when we're apart

Well, then, close your eyes and love me with what's coming from my heart

And then if you can remember . . .

Keep smiling keep shining
knowing you can always count on me — for sure

That's what friends are for . . .

DEDICATION

A FRIEND IS . . .

- . . . a priceless treasure. (Sara)
- . . . someone who knows you better than you know yourself! (Sheri)
- . . . someone who has the courage to tell you when you're wrong and the confidence to know when you're right. (Heather)
- . . . a person with a shoulder to lean on. (Kathy)
- . . . someone with whom you feel safe. (Jon)
- . . . someone who accepts you for who you are and stands by you at all costs. (Christina)
- . . . never afraid to show you who they really are. (Kristin W.)
- . . . a unique person that can always make you laugh or smile. (Varina)
- . . . someone who's always there to return your smile. (Tanya)
- . . . someone who stands by you when you're in trouble. ('cause he's in trouble too). (Nilesh)
- . . . someone who knows you, loves you, understands you, and one who will always be with you, if not in body, then always in your heart and mind. (Kristen H.)
- . . . your needs answered. (Erica)
- . . . your personal rainbow in the storm of life . . . someone who pretends to like your cat . . . a friend is Betsy. (Mrs. Eddy)

We dedicate this yearbook to friends — yours . . . ours . . . everyone's. Right now you hold in your hands a lifetime of memories — memories that should be treasured forever because they were shared with friends. Please remember these friends, for no matter where life may take you, you will always need them. We hope you will use this book as it is intended — as a key to your past as well as your future.

If I were near I'd tell you
What you so long to know
That I'm OK
It's "rad" up here
And my friends
I still love so.

You may feel someone helping
But aren't sure from whom or where Remember — I am with you
And remember — I still care.

Thanks for not forgetting me
Friends forever, right?
Just say a prayer and I'll be there
Like the morning light.

Time has come to graduate
To make a difference in this world
I never want to see you underrate Yourselves —
or the work you'll do.

I want to wish you all — good luck
Do your best in everything
— tell you never, ever to give up
No matter what life brings.

I'll leave you with this thought in mind That is — to make me proud!
— to remember each other over time
— don't forget
I'm still one of the crowd!!!

Love,
Dana (via Mom)

Come Saturday morning I'm going away with my friend
We'll, Saturday, spend to the end of the day
Just I and my friend
We'll travel for miles — on our Saturday smiles
And then we'll move on
But we will remember
Long after Saturday's gone Come Saturday morning . . .

REACH OUT AND TOUCH SOMEBODY'S HAND

Reach out and touch somebody's hand
make this world a better place if you can
reach out and touch somebody's hand
make this world a better place if you can just try

take a little time out of your busy day to give encouragement to someone who's lost the way
just try

would I be talking too strong if I asked you to share a problem that's not your own

we can change things if we start giving why don't you

reach out and touch somebody's hand
make this world a better place if you can
reach out and touch somebody's hand
make this world a better place if you can
just try

if you see an old man on the street and he's down remember his shoes could fit your feet

try a little kindness you'll see it's something that comes very naturally we can change things we start giving

why don't you
why don't you

reach out and touch somebody's hand
make this world a better place if you can
reach out and touch somebody's hand
make this world a better place if you can
just try . . .

LOOKS LIKE WE MADE IT

TIMES OF OUR LIFE ... DON'T STOP BELIEVING ... LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL ... THROUGH THE YEARS ... BLAME IT ON THE RAIN ... THAT'S WHAT FRIENDS ARE FOR ... CELEBRATE GOOD TIMES ... LAND OF CONFUSION ... IMAGINE ... THE WAY WE WERE ... BRING BACK THE MEMORIES ... THE CHILDREN OF TOMORROW ... ONE MOMENT IN TIME ... TAKE IT AS IT COMES ... DON'T WORRY BE HAPPY ... NEVER SAY GOODBYE ... ALWAYS ... WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN ...

HOLD ONTO THE NIGHT

Just when I believed
I couldn't ever want for more
This ever changing world
Pushes me through another door.
I saw you smile
And my mind could not erase
The beauty of your face.
Just for a while Won't you let me shelter you?

Hold on to the night
Hold on to the memories
I wish that I could give you something more
That I could be yours . . .

How do we explain
Something that took us by surprise
Promises in rain,
Love that is real but in disguise.
What happens now?
Do we break another rule,
Let our lovers play the fool.
I don't know how To stop feeling this way . . .

Hold on to the night
Hold on to the memories
I wish that I could give you something more
That I could be yours . . .

Well, I think that I've been true to everybody else but me,
And the way I feel about you makes my heart long to be free.
Every time I look into your eyes I'm helplessly aware,
That the someone I've been searching for is right there . . .

Hold on to the night
Hold on to the memories
I wish that I could give you something more
That I could be yours . . .

SPORTS

ONE MOMENT IN TIME

Each day I live I want to be a day to give the best of me

I'm only one but not alone

My finest day is yet unknown

I broke my heart for every gain

To taste the sweet I faced the pain

I rise and fall, yet through it all, this much remains:

I want one moment in time when I'm more than I thought I could be,

when all of my dreams are a heartbeat away

and the answers are all up to me.

Give me one moment in time when I'm racing with destiny

Then in that one moment in time I will feel, I will feel eternity

I've lived to feel eternity

You're a winner for a lifetime

if you seize that one moment in time — make it shine

Give me one moment in time when I'm more than I thought I could be,

when all of my dreams are a heartbeat away

and the answers are all up to me

Give me one moment in time, when I'm racing with destiny

Then in that one moment in time I will be, I will be, I will be free

I will be free

I

will

free

To the Coaches, Players and Fans:

Congratulations on a year full of excitement and success! Your achievements have brought us closer together and made our last year the most memorable one of all. Always carry this extraordinary spirit with you for it will be your most valuable asset and set you apart from the rest of the world.

UNDERCLASSMEN

THE GREATEST LOVE OF ALL

I believe the children are our future
Teach them well and let them lead the way
Show them all the beauty they possess inside
Give them a sense of pride
To make it easier

Let the children's laughter Remind us how we used to be

Everybody's searching for a hero People need someone to look up to
I never found anyone to fulfill my needs
A lonely place to be — and so I learned to depend on me

I decided long ago never to walk in anyone's shadows
If I fail — If I succeed —
At least I live as I believe
No matter what they take from me —
They can't take away my dignity —

Because the greatest love of all
Is happening to me
I found the greatest love of all
Inside of me

The greatest love of all
Is easy to achieve Learning to love yourself is
The greatest love of all

And if by chance that special place
That you've been dreaming of Leads you to a lonely place
Find your strength in love . . .

THE WIND BENEATH MY WINGS

It must have been cold there in my shadow,
To never have sunlight on your face.
You were content to let me shine, that's your way.
You always walked a step behind.
So I was the one with all the glory,
While you were the one with all the strength.
A beautiful face without a name, for so long,
A beautiful smile to hide the pain.
Did you ever know that you're my hero,
and everything I would like to be?
I can fly higher than an eagle,
'cause you are the wind beneath my wings.
It might have appeared to go unnoticed,
but I've got it all here in my heart.
I want you to know I know the truth,
Of course I know it,
I would be nothing without you.
Did you ever know that you're my hero,
You're everything I wish I could be.
I can fly higher than an eagle,
For you are the wind beneath my wings.
Did I every tell you you're my hero,
You're everything, everything I wish I could be.
Oh and I, I can fly higher than an eagle,
Cause you are the wind beneath my wings.
Oh the wind beneath my wings.
You, You, You, You are the wind beneath my wings.
Fly, Fly, Fly, away, you let me fly so high.
Oh You, You You, the wind beneath my wings.
Oh You you, you, you are the wind beneath my wings.
Fly, Fly, so high against the sky,
So high I almost touch the sky.
Thank you, thank you, Thank God for you,
The wind beneath my wings.

INTRODUCING TRADES BULLETIN

South Meadow Road • Plymouth, MA 02360

Stay ahead of the competition year round with weekly reports of all the building permits in your area . . .

A constant supply of new leads . . .

WHO TRADES BULLETIN publishes the NAMES of the owner and builder of each project.

WHERE TRADES BULLETIN lists the addresses of job LOCATIONS, owners and builders

WHAT TRADES BULLETIN identifies the TYPE OF PROJECT . . . Example: New residence, additions, remodeling, re-roof, pool, etc., as well as the estimated project cost.

WHEN TRADES BULLETIN quickly informs you of the DATE the permit was issued.

WHY TRADES BULLETIN saves you TIME & MONEY by producing sales leads on a regular basis at far less the cost of trying to gather the information yourself.

It's the nature of Plymouth County

The time is more precious. There are times that catch the commonplace off guard and show a sense of wonder. A moment only memory can capture again, and what will be recalled is the caring.

We at Plymouth Federal Savings Bank believe we're here to help you enjoy these moments. All of our services are directed that way — the way you live. We call it FinancialCare.

It's our hometown attitude that recognizes the values you cherish, not just the money you accumulate.

Wouldn't you rather deal with a bank that tries to help you meet your goals, not just its own?

Caring — it's the nature of Plymouth County and its people and we are part of that tradition. Member FDIC.

Call 508/746-4400 for all offices.

FinancialCare™ . . . because you add up to more than numbers.

We bought this ad because we support the work of the sponsoring organization. Through its efforts, life in this community is considerably enhanced and we are proud to supply a measure of support to help those efforts along. Contributing to the quality of life here is a commitment at

Why did we buy this ad?

The Five. That's why we provide free family concerts at Village Landing Marketplace. We support local sports teams, both youth and adult, and we contribute to local civic, community, and service organizations. We provide a scholarship to each high school in our service area, and we are dedicated to serving our community by maintaining the highest standards of quality possible. We are all neighbors with a similar interest in the lifestyle afforded us here.

TO BETSY:

I love you not only for what you are,
but for what I am when I am with you

I love you not only for what you have made of yourself, but for what you are making of me

I love you because you have done more than any creed could have done to make me
good,
And more happy than any fate
could have done to make me
happy

You have done it without a touch, without a word, without a sign

You have done it by being yourself

Perhaps that is what being a friend means, after all . . .

Dear Classmates:

As our final chapter of high school comes to a conclusion, it is a time to not only reflect upon the first twelve years of school but also look ahead to the future, knowing that we have all enjoyed the good times and survived the bad. We are now ready to face new challenges as we continue to grow.

Our first days of school brought new experiences and new fears. It was a difficult task for some of us to learn the alphabet and numbers while for others it was harder to be away from the security of home. But we all made friends and as our schooling progressed we have faced the new adventures together. We were constantly being challenged in every aspect of our lives. It was a time of discovery.

Things are now coming full circle and here we are on the threshold of a new beginning. Some of us have chosen college, some the armed forces, and others have decided to join the work force. But whatever your plans may be, think of them as an ongoing process of learning. Start out with enthusiasm and excitement, remembering that as in grade school, your confidence will grow as you face many new experiences.

May your futures bring you all the success and happiness that you so richly deserve.

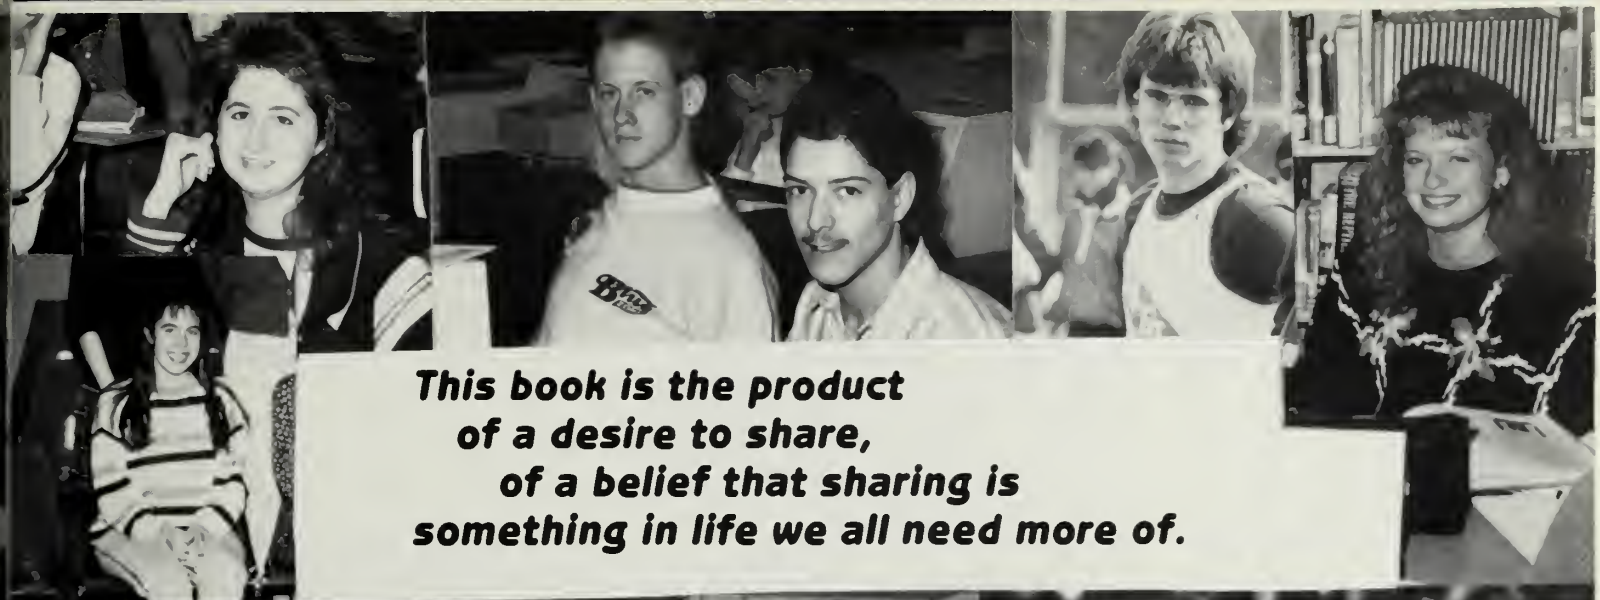

Love —

Sheri & Heather

The Wall Comes Down

When the night has come ... And the land is dark ... And the moon is the only life we'll see ... No I won't be afraid ... Oh I won't be afraid ... Just as long as you stand by me! ... If the sky that we look upon should tumble and fall ... Or the moon should crumble to the sea ... I won't cry ... I won't cry ... No I won't shed a tear ... Just as long as you stand, stand by me!

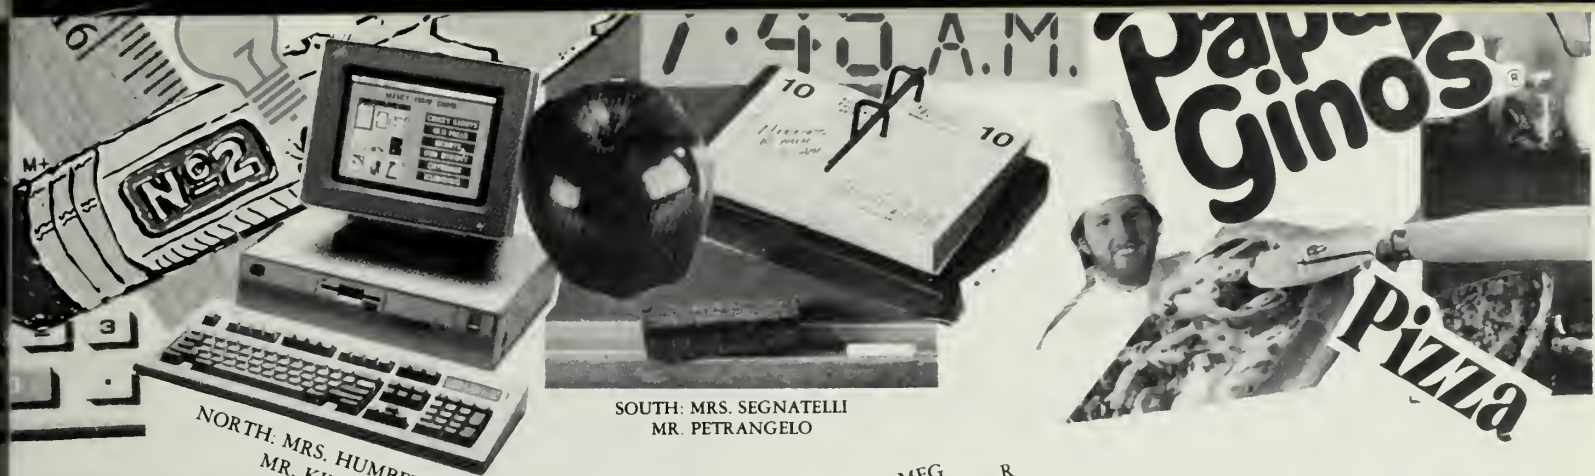

I see your true colors shining through
 ... I see your true colors ... and that's why I love you ... so don't be afraid to let them show ... Your true colors are beautiful ... like a rainbow ... Show me a smile ... don't be unhappy ... can't remember when I last saw you laugh ... If this world makes you crazy ... and you've taken ... all you can take ... you call me up ... because I'll be there ...

Do you know where you're going to . . . do you like the things that life is showing you . . . where are you going to . . . do you know, do you get what you're hoping for . . . when you look behind you there's no open door . . . what are you hoping for . . . do you know once we were standing still in time . . . chasing the fantasies that feed our minds . . . you knew how I loved you but my spirit was free . . . laughing at the questions that you once asked of me . . . now looking back at all we've had . . . we've let so many dreams just slip through our heads . . . why must we wait so long before we see . . . how sad the answers to those questions can be.

Listen —

Can you hear it?

Or is it something that you sense?

Feel it —

It is a beat

Faint at first, then intense.

Recognize it —

It is yourself

Striving forward with confidence.

Release it —

It will take you far

Beyond the stars with hope and strength.

Wonder at it —

It is a gift

That contains a power unbelievably immense.

Live it —

It will beat onward

Towards a future that is about to commence.

The beat goes on . . . 1990

TIFFANY PROUT

Dear Tiffany —

You have developed into a sensitive, loving intelligent person, who has all the qualities necessary to become a very successful and beautiful woman as I always knew you would be. You have had dreams and goals since you have been a child and you always have strived to achieve them no matter what obstacles have been in your way — and there have been many. You are loved and appreciated by all of us.

Love,

Your mother & your friend

Tiffany,

I have watched you grow from a tiny infant into a young woman. Every year my pride in you has grown as you have grown.

As the door to high school closes, an exciting journey unfolds. It's called life. Work hard for what you want, always keep learning, never stop growing, and above all enjoy the journey.

Love always,

Dad

MELISSA ROSSETTI & TIM WESTGATE

It's hard to believe that you've grown so fast. Seems like only yesterday I held the two of you in my arms. My firstborn and my baby brother. Soon you will graduate. I wish you both good health, much success and every happiness.

Melissa,

Congratulations! We are so proud of you. You are a wonderful daughter and a great sister. We wish you luck in anything you decide to do. We love you very much.

TO TINA

Since you were born you have been such a beautiful addition to our family. Now that you are growing up we can see that you are a beautiful addition to the world and we are so proud of you. As we watch you doing things on your own we know you will find happiness and success because we are confident in your ability, your self-knowledge and your values. But if you ever need a boost or just someone to talk to about difficulties that might be occurring we are always here to help you, to understand you, to support you and to love you.

All our love,
Mum & Dad

Good luck "T" and I will miss you.

MICHAEL MONKEVICZ

You're a senior! Graduation is just around the corner. We will never forget some moments in your life: your first day at school, your first homerun, your first job, the decision to go away to college. These happy memories as well as the personal crises (your first bout with "stage fright"!) that you've met in everyday life are all steps toward maturity. Your determination to succeed and do your best coupled with this maturity will take you wherever your heart desires. Reach high Michael, there are stars out there to be caught!

Dear Lisa,

The circling horse of the merry-go-round was for you a large and exciting world. We took turns running alongside to keep your journey going.

LISA WHITTEN

TODAY

Your circles have grown larger, and you have taken the reins. We're happy for you and proud of the tracks you've made.

CHRIS JONES

Once upon a time, we showed you in very real ways that we were always here for you — no matter what you needed. We'd be right by your bedside when you weren't quite feeling well . . . held your hand in ours when we helped you cross the street . . . wrapped you up in hugs when you were hurting or afraid. But part of being a parent is finding the strength to let you go . . . to let you grow . . . to let you know that you can make it on your own. We've tried to give you the space you need to make your own decisions, take your own chances and feel your own way in the world.

You have worked hard and are reaching your goals. We're proud of you because you have managed to make it in spite of obstacles — you have stuck with it and believed in yourself. That calls for CONGRATULATIONS!

Mom and Dad

SKIP WILLIAMS

SKIP — WE ARE ON YOUR SIDE AND WE ALWAYS WILL BE

We just want to send you a few words of encouragement . . .

to tell you that we believe you are one of the best people around, and someone who, without a doubt, deserves to be happy

in your pursuits and successful in your efforts . . .

We know that things don't always go as planned, and plans don't always work out as soon as they should.

But — because you are the great person you are —

We know that your hopes will eventually come true for you.

In the meantime . . .

if you ever need cheering up, or any words of encouragement, all you have to do is to let us know what you need.

Because we are on your side . . .

and we always will be.

ONE STEP AT A TIME
IS THE BEST WAY TO GO

When going through life and travelling in the direction of your dreams, the best way to get ahead is the simplest way:
Take it one step at a time.

Don't look over your shoulder; if you do, you'll feel the weight of all your yesterdays upon you.

And don't worry about what lies ahead.

By the time you get to the bend in the road or the crest of the hill, you're going to be better and stronger than you ever were before.

Just go a step at a time,
one day at a time.

And you'll find a rich, thankful life you never thought you could afford. (Adrian Rogers)

Dear Betsy:

A daughter is special . . .

From the very beginning,
she touches you
with her baby softness, and holds you
with her love and affection.

She has a way of making you want to give her the sun, the moon, and the stars, because her hugs
are the sweetest joys,
and because, by some miracle, she's a part of you.

And, as the years go by, your dreams grow with her — and so does your love — till one day
you look at her, all grown up, and you smile with tender pride.

We love you so much,

CONGRATULATIONS
Love Mom & Dad

Dear Sara,

From the moment you were born you have lit up the lives of all those who have touched yours. You have brought love, joy and laughter to our hearts.

As this little girl you gathered rocks from the yard, painted them, then went door to door selling them to the neighbors. When you felt Matt was in need of a haircut, the pinking shears appeared to be the appropriate tool to use.

The transition from child to young woman seems to have passed in a blink of an eye. Through these years we have shared pain and sorrow, anger and peace, unity and separation, tears and laughter. But through it all, the love never faltered and it never will. I love you, sweetie.

*My love always,
Mom*

Midnight not a sound from the pavement has the moon lost her memory?
 She is smiling alone in the lamplight the withered leaves collect at my feet and the wind begins to moan

Mem 'ry all alone in the moonlight
 I can smile at the old days
 I was beautiful then I remember the time I knew what happiness was let the mem 'ry live again

Every street light seems to beat a fatalistic warning someone mutters and a street lamp sputters and soon it will be morning

Daylight sunrise
 I must think of a new life and I must give in when the dawn comes tonight will be a memory too and a new day begins . . .

Burnt out ends of smokey days the stale cold smell of morning the street lamp dies another night is over another day is dawning

Touch me it's so easy to leave me all alone with the memory of my day in the sun if you touch me you'll understand what happiness is look . . . a new day has begun

February 11, 1990

Dear Class of 1990:

This is it, the last page of our yearbook, yet it is more than pictures and words. Captured within these pages are emotions and memories that can only be recreated in our minds and in our hearts. It is my hope that this book will help you to recall those moments and to remember how special they were.

A tremendous amount of thought and care was put into the design of this yearbook. Both big and small contributions were made by many people, and each one has made a difference. It was that combined effort that enabled us to create this everlasting symbol of the Class of 1990. There are many people to whom I would like to extend special thanks:

The faculty and administration of P.N.H.S. and P.S.H.S.

All of our school secretaries

Our school custodians

Conrad Schmidt of Taylor Publishing Company

Ken and Nancy Green of Green Photographers

Our families

Trudy Ward

All those who sold ads

The editors and staff

However, the most endearing thank you goes to Mrs. Donna Eddy, the advisor of our yearbook. To Mrs. Eddy I extend my sincere gratitude and love for all of her time and effort. Her creative ideas were inspiring, and her enthusiasm was motivating. Most of all, her friendship will always be treasured.

The theme decided upon by our staff is "AND THE BEAT GOES ON." After the Class of 1990 graduates, the beat will go on for us and for others. We will move on to another portion of our lives to learn more about ourselves and our world. I'm sure those we leave behind will stop and think of us, but their lives will also continue.

The dedication of our yearbook is to friendship, and this has been most evident in the cohesiveness of the yearbook editors. With such a diverse group of seniors, we were able to form friendships that will always be remembered whenever we open this book. Through the "laughter and the tears," we formed memories that will stay with us long after we part at graduation.

The day for us to step out on our own is nearing. I hope you anticipate it eagerly, and after the excitement of graduation is over, take a moment and remember . . . No matter which path in life you may choose, I send with you wishes for happiness and prosperity. Always carry a smile in your heart — and remember the way we were . . .

In friendship and love,

Sara ☺

"WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN"

We've only just begun
To live
White lace and promises
A kiss for luck and we're on our way
We've only just begun . . .

Before the rising sun
We fly
So many roads to choose-
We start out walking
And learn to run . . .
And yet we've just begun.

Sharing horizons that are new to us
Watching the signs along the way
Talking it over
Just the two of us
Working together day to day . . . together

And when the evening comes
We smile
So much of life ahead,
We'll find a place where there's room to grow
And yet we've only just begun . . .
